WARDS GATHER UP MORE GUNS

Americans Turning Over Weapons More Rapidly Than Aliens

HELENS, June 19.—More than 100 weapons were turned in to the national guard yesterday by women. The total number handed over yesterday was 300, most of which were turned in here and at Spring Canyon.

Of those who surrendered guns are women. Colonel W. G. Williams, assistant general, was here today and the guard and with the women.

The guard passed quietly. Martial law is in effect. The guard will be in the city for some time.

A detachment of 19 men was sent to the camp at Spring Canyon. The detachment was led by Lieutenant Charles F. Adams.

JURY DISAGREES IN GARDNER CASE

SALT LAKE, June 19.—After reporting that an agreement was reached, the jury in the case of Mrs. Gardner, charged with the murder of Joseph W. Irvine, was unable to agree on a verdict. The jury was discharged at 9:30 o'clock Saturday night by Judge Ephraim Hanson. Mrs. Gardner was placed in the county jail to await trial.

The case was given the jury at 5:45 o'clock Friday afternoon. When the night it was placed under key with instructions to continue deliberations until morning.

Upon the last ballot last night the members are divided. Two for acquittal and two for conviction. The jury is said to have been equally divided for conviction and acquittal on a ballot taken soon after submission of the case Friday.

John E. Mackay, foreman, said last night the members voted not to acquit. He did say, however, that the voting varied greatly at various times during the deliberations.

SQUIRE COOP TAKES CALIFORNIA POST

SALT LAKE, June 19.—To fill a position on the faculty of the University of California, Los Angeles, Squire Coop, former Ogden man, conductor of the Salt Lake theatre orchestra, and musical director of the Salt Lake Oratorio society, is preparing to leave for here in the near future, according to an announcement made by him last night.

From 1906 to 1912, Mr. Coop was in the faculty of the University of Utah, instructor in music before the chair of music was created there and professor of music for several years prior to 1912.

In 1911 Mr. Coop organized the University of Utah Musical society, with a chorus of fewer than 100 voices, and out of this organization grew the Salt Lake Oratorio society, which now has a chorus 300 strong, with a prestige and standing that is known throughout the country.

Mr. Coop is a native of California, and was educated at the University of California, Los Angeles. He has been in the Salt Lake theatre orchestra for several years.

CLAN CHIEF OF COAST RETURNS

Coburn Charges Frameup; Approved of Fatal Ingleswood Raid

EL PASO, Texas, June 19.—William S. Coburn, grand knight of the Pacific domain, Ku Klux Klan, who stopped off here on his way from Atlanta to Los Angeles, where he is under indictment in connection with the Ingleswood raid, left today for California.

"If my enemies in Los Angeles know I am coming, they will do everything in their power to humiliate me," he said.

"There is nothing those fellows who led that raid would do to carry out their designs and keep me away from Los Angeles until they can saddle the responsibility of the raid on me."

"When I was in Atlanta, shortly after the indictments were returned, they went to my home in Los Angeles, virtually kidnaped by wife and children, put them on a train and sent them to Atlanta. My wife was told that she would be killed if she remained there and was instructed to go straight to Atlanta and stay there and to tell me to stay or I would be assassinated. It was all a frameup to make it appear that I was hiding from the grand jury and the sheriff."

Coburn said that the first thing he would do would be to submit to arrest and then make bond. He could make bond in any amount, he went on, and "was not afraid of the whole gang."

After Coburn has insisted that he was not in the Ingleswood raiding party, he was asked if, as the highest Klan official in the state, he countenanced the raid and approved of what took place there.

"Confidentially yes, it was all right," he replied. "The fellows were running a distillery contrary to law, were debauching young school boys and girls, and they deserved all they got and more."

POVERTY STRICKEN ARTIST WINS PRIZE

NEW YORK, June 17.—In a poverty-stricken room in East Eighty-eighth street sits Alfred Fogel, a slight, dark German, a naturalized American with his dreams come true.

He was awarded Sunday night the Prix de Rome, given by the American Academy in Rome for his imaginative mural "Music" in one of the restaurant in return for a meal.

It is coincidence that last year Fogel entered another squalid abode, brought forth Frank Schwartz just before he was to be evicted for non-payment of rent, and awarded him the same prize. Schwartz and Fogel were born in the same city, Leipzig.

HUGHES' PROPOSAL MAY CLEAR DISPUTE

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(By the Associated Press.)—The earnest and impartial manner in which the American state department has approached the Chilean-Peruvian conference (angle) appeared Sunday to have won completely the confidence of both sides and to have strengthened in all quarters the hope for an early agreement.

By some of those close to the negotiations, it even was regarded as almost a foregone conclusion that both sides would accept without delay a formula of arbitration soon expected to be put forward as a compromise suggestion by Secretary Hughes.

Among the more cautious, however, it was pointed out that neither the Chileans nor the Peruvians had obligated themselves to accept what Mr. Hughes proposed and it was added that so far the secretary had not even agreed formally that he would have a suggestion to make.
